

Brevard Mall To Show Lots Of Green For Earth Day

April 20, 1991

1-1 minutes

MELBOURNE — Environmental agencies throughout Brevard County will have exhibits during Earth Day activities today and Sunday at the Melbourne Square Mall.

"An Earthly Effort" is being co-sponsored by the South Brevard Girl Scouts and the St. Johns River Water Management District.

Among the exhibits will be displays by such groups as the Sea Turtle Preservation Society, East Coast Zoological Society and the city of Melbourne Recycling Program. There will be two Florida panther cubs presented by Wildlife Rescue of Tampa, exotic birds from the Brevard Zoo and various snakes and small creatures from Merritt Island National Wildlife Refuge.
